THE JAMESTOWNE SOCIETY
ANNUAL GIVING CAMPAIGN

For information about making a contribution:
Please contact Bonnie Hofmeyer, Executive Director,
at 804-353-1226, or at jamestownesociety@verizon.net

Important Tax Information
The Jamestowne Society is a 501(c)(3) organization. Gifts to the Society are fully tax deductible. Gifts are understood to be unrestricted unless designated by the donor to one or more of the following:

Alice Massey-Nesbitt Fellowship Endowment
Provides a $10,000 fellowship to a graduate student whose research is devoted exclusively, or at least very substantially, to Colonial Virginia before 1700. Masters or Ph.D. candidates in relevant disciplines such as History, American Studies, Literature, Archaeology, Anthropology, or Fine Arts may apply.

Archaeology Dig Fund
Provides financial resources to support the archaeology dig project including archaeological fieldwork, research, education, and public programs, including Jamestowne 1619 Commemoration and 1607 First Settlers Project.

Building and Grounds Fund
Provides for the ongoing maintenance needs of the Jamestowne Society office located in Richmond, Virginia.

Elizabeth B. Wingo
Restoration of Records Fund
Provides funds to preserve and conserve early colonial records.

Harrison Ruffin Tyler Fund
Provides unrestricted funding to meet unexpected or pressing needs of the Society. The Fund honors the Society’s Treasurer of many years, Harrison Tyler.

Online Giving
Online giving is a convenient way to make your contribution to the Jamestowne Society Annual Giving Campaign. Visit our website at www.jamestownesociety.org to make a secure contribution.

Legacy Gifts & Gifts of Appreciated Securities
Legacy Gifts express a donor’s commitment to Jamestowne Society by naming the Society as the ultimate beneficiary of a planned gift. Gifts of securities might offer the donor advantages over cash gifts. To discuss either of these alternatives and get additional information contact Bonnie Hofmeyer, Executive Director, 804-353-1226.

Recognition
The Society recognizes all gifts to the Annual Giving Campaign in the Society’s Fall Magazine and in other publications. The Roll of Honor recognizes cumulative donations made between January 1, 1998 and present.
